THE Books described in this Catalogue were collected, several years since, by Mr. HENRY STEVENS, Literary Agent in London of the Smithsonian Institution, as material to be used in the completion of his yet unfinished Work upon American Bibliography. Having made such use of the Books as was necessary for this purpose, he described them, with collations, and prices for sale affixed, in a Catalogue, printed about four years ago, entitled AMERICAN NUGGETS.* Only three or four copies of that Catalogue were permitted to go out of his hands, and a few of the Books have been sold; but, on account of his large accessions of works of the same class, the public circulation of the Catalogue was delayed until the preparation of other volumes of the series could be completed. The greatly altered value of many of the books described in the Nuggets,—some having much increased, and others probably diminished in price,—has induced the conviction that the circulation of that Catalogue now, or at any future time, as a means for the sale of its contents, would not be fair either to buyer or seller. Mr. STEVENS has therefore determined to submit the entire unsold portion of the Nuggets to unreserved public competition, in the hope and belief, that, though many of the articles may fall below the prices affixed to them in his own Catalogue, the prices of others, with whose rarity and importance Collectors have become better acquainted, will be found to be enhanced; and thus such a result may be obtained as, on the whole, will justify the course proposed.

In the Nuggets, the title of each work is printed, word for word, as in the original, and exact collations of each are appended. The titles in the following catalogue have been abridged, but it is hoped, not to such an extent as to hinder the exact identification of any work or edition. By the kind permission of Mr. Stevens we have availed ourselves of the collations printed in the Nuggets, which, with some corrections and occasional additions of our own, will, we trust, be found of utility to collectors. It should be observed that all half-titles and titles are reckoned as preliminary leaves, and as the collations in this Catalogue are, almost without exception, taken from the identical copies now for sale, there may sometimes occur a discrepancy between the collations here printed as compared with those of copies found elsewhere, arising from the presence or absence of the half-title preceding the title in one or other copy. It is however believed that the descriptions are so exact as to diminish the difficulty thus anticipated, to the least practicable extent. The copies now offered for sale will, unless otherwise described, be sold as in accordance with the collations herein printed. All imperfections known are stated.

The expressions scarce, rare, etc. with their customary superlatives, have been omitted from this Catalogue, except when used upon the authority of others; such commendations are not needed by the well-informed collector, while they might justly be applied so frequently in this Catalogue as to bewilder a tyro. We have rather chosen to add occasionally notes explanatory of the character, history, or peculiarity of the books, such as were furnished by our own experience, or as we could glean from the admirable Bibliotheca Americana of Mr. Rich, and from other sources.

We have during the last ten years been honoured with the disposal of so many Libraries of peculiar interest to American collectors, that it would be ungenerous to begrudge to them a fair share of the treasures now offered for sale, but still the hope may, without offence, be indulged, that the collection submitted may help to fill many chasms in the shelves of more than one of our own public Libraries, as well as contribute to satisfy the longings of enthusiastic English Amateurs.

Lond. 1689, title, and 37 pp. 4°

Among the several references to America in this quaint little book, the following extract is not the least curious:—"Now the reason of this was, the people of England were a little before that time under the same mistake, as they are generally now, and cried out against the Builders, that the City would grow too big; and therefore in the 38 of Queen Elizabeth they made a law to prohibit buildings in the City of London; which, though it was but a probationary Act, to continue only to the next Sessions of Parliament (which was but a short time), yet its effects were long; for it frightened the builders, and obstructed the growth of the City; and none built for thirty years after, all King James His Reign, without his Majesties License; but for want of Houses the increase of the People went into other parts of the world; for within this space of time were those great Plantations of New-England, Virginia, Mariland, and Bermudas began; and that this want of houses was the occasion, is plain; for they could not build in the Country, because of the Law against Cottages. For people may get children and so increase, that had not four Acres of ground to build on."—Page 28.

- 458 CALANCHA (Antonio de la) CRONICA DE S. AUGUSTIN EN EL PERU con sucesos exemplares de esto Monarquia

Lima, 1653, folio

This is the second and most important volume of the Chronicle of Calancha, and was printed at Lima in 1653, but was never published, owing probably to certain obnoxious passages contained in it. It is a smaller volume than the first, which was printed in Barcelona in 1638, and is of much rarer occurrence. This copy wants the title, and some of the marginal notes have been cut off, possibly by the Officers of the Inquisition. It has 6 preliminary leaves, without the title. Book I. is folioed to 15, and paged thence to 268. Book II. has one preliminary leaf, and breaks off abruptly with the 42nd page. Then comes Book V. in 92 pages, followed by two leaves, containing the table of the whole volume. In this the Fifth Book is called the third in order. No other copy is known, the work having probably for some reason been suppressed.

Lond. for Nath. Hillar, 1700, 4°

Title; 'The Epistle to the Reader,' 6 pp.; Index, 3 pp. Letter of Cotton Mather, 1 page. Text, 156 pp.

The author gave great offence by opposing the then popular belief concerning witches. "In his discussion with Cotton Mather, he is as superior to him in reasoning as he was in good sense and courage."—North Am. Rev. iii. p. 316.

- 463 Callander (John) Voyages to the Terra Australis, or Southern Hemisphere, during the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries, 3 vols. Edinb. 1766, 8°

Vol. I. Title; 'To Charles Townshend, Esq.' 'To Sir Lawrence Dundas, Bart.' 2 leaves. 'Contents,' pp. v.-vi. List of Books, 2 pp. 'Preface,' viii. pp. 'A Map of the Straits of Magellan,' etc. Text, 516 pp. II. 1768. Title, Contents, and Preface, 3 leaves; text, pp. 3-692; map. III. Title and Contents, 2 leaves; text, 745 pp.; map.

Rich suggests that Callander was little else than a translator of the President De Brosse's work, printed at Paris in 1756.

Rich has no mention of this volume, which was privately printed for the use of the King and Council. It must not be confounded with the book described in the following number. It is a book of the utmost importance to the historian of Spanish America, being a kind of private official Handbook or Directory of Mexico, Yucatan, Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua, etc. The Author was Secretary to the Council of the Indies.

On the reverse of folio 180 the author says, That only a few copies of the work had been printed for the use of the King, his Council, and Ministers. Hence its extreme rarity.

- 466 CALLE (JUAN DIEZ DE LA) MEMORIAL, another copy, very fine, in blue morocco by Bedford 1646, 4^o
 This is probably a later issue of the preceding, with several important additions, alterations, and corrections. Two of the preliminary leaves have been cancelled and reprinted with alterations, viz. the last leaf of the Epistle Dedicatory and the first leaf of the Indice. Two preliminary leaves are added, making in this impression 14, viz. 'Prosegue el Indico deste Memorial' and 'Notas' 2 pages; and 'Erratas' 1 page, reverse blank; folios 10, 11, 22, 23, 33, and 35 of the text are reprinted, with considerable additions and some omissions. The Errata after folio 183 are cancelled, and placed here on the 14th preliminary leaf, reprinted with corrections. This copy possesses all these reprints, as well as the cancelled leaves.

538 CHECKLEY (JOHN) The Religion of Jesus Christ the only True Religion, or, A Short and Easie Method with the Deists, in a Letter to a Friend

Boston, T. Fleet, and are to be Sold by John Checkley, 1719, 8°

Title, reverse blank; 'The Preface,' [By Checkley] 12 pp.; Text 51 pp.; 'The Epistle of St. Ignatius to the Trallians,' 7 pp. This book is a reprint of Charles Leslie's 'Short and Easie Method with the Deists,' first published in London in 1699, but Mr. Checkley prefixed to this edition a preface of his own of 12 pages, not in the 8th ed. (see No. 539). This edition does not contain Checkley's Discourse concerning Episcopacy. Thomas, vol. ii. p. 428, says, "Whether he [Checkley] was a regular bookseller or not, I am not prepared to say; I have seen no book printed for him in America."

539 [CHECKLEY (JOHN)] A Short and Easie Method with the Deists, in a Letter to a Friend, 8th Ed. Presentation copy

Lond. by J. Applebee, and Sold by John Checkley, at the Sign of the Crown and Blue-Gate, over against the West-End of the Town-House in Boston, 1723, 132 pp. 8°

Considerable interest attaches to this very rare book, in consequence of the alarm that it raised in New England, and the litigation that ensued. It contains Leslie's 'Short and Easie Method with the Deists,' but with the preface described in the previous article omitted. But instead of this there is appended (pp. 41 to 127) A Discourse concerning Episcopacy [By John Checkley], wherein he endeavours to prove that Dissenters, not being Episcopally ordained, are no ministers, etc. and comments rather harshly upon the Church Courses of New England. This gave great offence, and Checkley was prosecuted in 1724 at the Inferior Court for publishing "a false and scandalous libel." He was convicted, but appealed to the Superior Court, where, after a long speech in his own defence, endeavouring to show that this Book is not a Libel, the jury found the following verdict: "The Jury find specially: viz. If the Book intituled, A Short and Easie Method with the Deists, containing in it a Discourse concerning Episcopacy (published, and many of them sold by the said Checkley) be a false and scandalous Libel: Then we find the said Checkley guilty of all and every Part of the Indictment (excepting that supposed to traduce and draw into dispute the undoubted Right and Title of our Sovereign Lord King George, to the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Territories thereto belonging)—But if the said Book, containing a Discourse concerning Episcopacy as aforesaid, be not a false and scandalous Libel; Then we find him not guilty. Att' Samuel Tyley Clerc."

The Defendant then put in his 'Plea in Arrest of Judgment,' which is given in extenso in his Speech (See No. 540), concluding, "But be that as it will, the Dissenters are affirmed to be no Ministers, to be Schismatics, and excommunicate by the Canons of the Church of England, which are part of the Law of the Land; and therefore, to say the same things of them, I humbly hope shall not be deemed a Libel."

The Sentence of the Court, at a Court of Assize, &c. Nov. 27, 1724:

"The Court having maturely advised on this special Verdict, are of Opinion that the said John Checkley is guilty of publishing and selling of a false and scandalous Libel. It's therefore considered by the Court, That the said John Checkley shall pay a fine of Fifty Pounds to the King, and enter into recognizance in the sum of One Hundred Pounds, with two Sureties in the sum of Fifty Pounds each, for his good Behaviour for Six Months, and also pay Costs of Prosecution, standing committed until this sentence be performed. Att' Samuel Tyley, Clerc."

In a note on page 11, he says, "¶ Those who have a mind to see the Propositions in this small Tract prov'd beyond the Possibility of a Reply, are desired to read a Discourse concerning Episcopacy, which they may have at the Crown and Gate opposite the West End of the Town-House in Boston. Where likewise may be had Barclay's Perswasive, printed in London, by Jonah Bowyer, with other Books of a like nature."

- 699 DAMPIER (WILLIAM). A COLLECTION of VOYAGES. Containing I. Captain Dampier's Voyages round the World. II. The voyages of Lionel Wafer. III. Capt. Dampier's Expedition into the South-Seas. IV. Capt. Cowley's Voyage round the Globe. V. Capt. Sharp's Journey over the Isthmus of Darien, and into the South Seas. VI. Capt. Wood's Voyage through the Streights of Magellan. VII. Mr. Roberts's Adventures and Sufferings amongst the Corsairs of the Levant, 4 vols. Lond. 1729, 8°

This is generally considered the best edition of Dampier's Voyages, though it contains much that Dampier not only had no hand in writing, but against which he protested. (See preceding article). The truth appears to be that he was at the merey of his publisher, Knapton, who used Dampier's saleable volumes as mules for carrying off his unsaleable stock. Volumes I. and II. of this edition are reprints of the earlier editions, page for page, and with the same plates and maps, except that in the first volume, the publisher has suppressed Dampier's Dedication to Charles Mountague, President of the Royal Society, to make room for a second title, "A New Voyage round the World," etc. "The Seventh Edition Corrected," which here occupies A 2. Vol. III. is a reprint of Dampier's third volume, described below (No. 700), but in a broader page, and paged continuously. It has eight preliminary leaves, and the text is paged 1 to 260, including the Index. The plates are the same as in the previous editions. Beyond this Dampier had nothing to do with the work. The remaining half of this third volume consists of a reprint of Wafer's Voyage, which is here called The Third Edition. It contains title and pages 263 to 463, followed by 9 pages of Index. The map and the three plates are the same as in the first and second Editions, published also by Knapton in 1699 and 1704. Volume IV. contains Funnell's Voyage, exactly as described in No. 897, with a new title, thus working in bodily the remainder of the edition of 1707, against which Dampier protested. [See No. 698.] To this are added reprints of Cowley's, Sharp's, Wood's, and Roberts' Voyages, filling 175 pp. and 6 pp. of Index, with 5 maps. In some copies, however, Funnell's Voyage is reprinted with the same maps and plates, but in a closer type, it being in 8 prel. leaves, 208 pages of text, with 8 pages of Index.

With these facts in view, it seems to the writer that it is better to have Dampier undefiled, and therefore the best editions of Dampier are his three volumes as originally published. Then let the other works by Funnell, Wafer, Sharp, etc. stand on their own merits, in their own editions, under their own names.

In the Preface the Editor says, "The first edition of Dampier's Voyages was published by himself, but not in the same order they were performed, which has a little perplexed the narrative; the language is now partly become obsolete, which renders the perusal more difficult to common readers; and the edition is now also extremely scarce. To remedy these inconveniences, the chronological order wherein the series of events happened is observed in this Edition; all old phrases and expressions are modernized; and to render this publication still more acceptable to naturalists and geographers, where our author has only given the common country names of natural subjects, the present systematical names are added without altering his descriptions, which have always been quoted as of the greatest authority by writers on Natural History, and the names of places are corrected according to the modern spelling of the latest geographers."

- 882 [FRANKLIN (BENJAMIN)] A DISSERTATION ON LIBERTY AND NECESSITY, PLEASURE AND PAIN, half morocco
London, printed in the Year 1725, 32 pp. 8°
UNIQUE. This is the long lost but much sought for wicked Tract of the Youth, Benjamin Franklin. It eluded even the research of Mr. Sparks, who ransacked European and American libraries for it, and says (vol. viii. p. 405), "No copy of this tract is now known to be in existence." Franklin, in his Autobiography, says of it, "At Palmer's [in Bartholomew Close, London] I was employed in composing for the second edition of Wollaston's Religion of Nature [See WOLLASTON]. Some of his reasonings not appearing to me well founded, I wrote a little metaphysical piece in which I made remarks on them. It was entitled 'A Dissertation on Liberty and Necessity, Pleasure and Pain.' I inscribed it to my friend Ralph, [that Ralph of whom Pope wrote in the DUNCIAD :
Silence, ye wolves, while Ralph to Cynthia howls,
And makes Night hideous; answer him, ye owls.]
I printed a small number. It occasioned my being more considered by Mr. Palmer as a young man of some ingenuity, though he seriously expostulated with me upon the principles of my pamphlets, which to him appeared abominable. My printing this pamphlet was another erratum." Two years later, after his return to Philadelphia, Franklin says in his Autobiography, "My London Pamphlet, printed in 1725, . . . appeared now not so clever a performance as I once thought it."

Many years later, in a letter to his friend Benjamin Vaughan, he wrote, "There were only a hundred copies printed, of which I gave a few to friends; and afterwards disliking the piece, as conceiving it might have an ill tendency, I burnt the rest, except one copy, the margin of which was filled with manuscript notes by Lyons, author of the Infallibility of Human Judgment, who was at that time another of my acquaintance in London. I was not nineteen years of age when it was written. In 1730, I wrote a piece on the other side of the question. . . . This pamphlet was never printed, and the manuscript has been long lost."

An interesting article upon this tract of Franklin appeared in Notes and Queries, Jan. 3, 1852, from the pen of Mr. James Crossley, who describes a copy in his possession in such a manner as to leave no doubt that his is not the original edition of 1725, but a reprint in sixteen closely printed pages. This original edition fills 32 pages, and cannot be called closely printed. We cannot learn of a copy in any other collection, public or private. It has never been reprinted in any of the editions of Dr. Franklin's Works. As a memorial of the 'youthful indiscretion' of one of the greatest men of his age this little book must ever rank as one of the curiosities of literature.

t'Amsterdam, JOOST HARTGERTS, 1648, 4°

This extraordinary Collection of Voyages by Joost Hartgerts is sometimes called the Dutch De Bry or the Dutch Hulsius; for in beauty of execution and intrinsic interest it rivals both of those famous Collections. In point of rarity there is no comparison; this being scarcely known to Bibliographers. How many parts Hartgerts published, it is even now uncertain, although the most active research has for many years been made by Collectors of Voyages and Travels. The Parts were probably issued and sold separately, and the collection of them into sets, with a collective title, preface, etc. was an afterthought.

This Collection has an advantage over De Bry and Hulsius, that many of the voyages are in the language in which they were originally written, while most of those by De Bry and Hulsius are translations.

The importance of this Collection will appear from the following brief list of its contents:—

 A perfect copy (of which but one is known) should have 100 pp. including the title. For a long account of this very interesting little volume, see Thomas's Hist. of Printing, Vol. I. p. 257-8. It is printed in double columns, with a new very handsome faced Nonpareil letter. Thomas says—"it is a curious fact that nonpareil types were used so early in this country. I have not seen them in any other book printed either at Cambridge or Boston before the Revolution" [1775.] He ascribes the printing to Samuel Green, at Cambridge, in 1664 or 1665, but the reason he gives would as well apply if printed four or five years earlier, for Hezekiah Usher acted as the agent of the Corporation in England for propagating the Gospel in New England as early as 1653, as appears by the original MS. Record Book of that Corporation, in the possession of Mr. Stevens.
